Head Start Programs

Early Head Start

Early Head Start programs serve infants, toddlers and pregnant people and their families who have incomes below the federal poverty level.

Head Start

Head Start is a federal program that promotes the school readiness of children under five from low-income families by enhancing their cognitive, social, and emotional development.

Applying to Your Local Program

Use the Head Start Locator to find a Head Start program near your home. Call the phone number listed to find out the next steps in the process. A full list of participating programs is included on page two.

Eligibility

Children from birth to age five from families with low income, according to the poverty guidelines published by the federal government, are eligible for Head Start and Early Head Start services.

Exceptions

Children in foster care, homeless children, and children from families receiving public assistance (TANF or SSI) are eligible regardless of income.

How to Apply

Your local program will provide the required forms and answer your questions. They will also tell you what documents you should bring with you to apply.
